JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

HIGH COURT OF MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Notification dated 8th September 1948.

RULES UNDER THE MYSORE PRESSAND NEWSPAPERS ACT, 1940.

No. R. Dis. 9 of 1948-49. In exercise of the power conferred by Section 25 of the Mysore Press and Newspapers Act, 1940, hereinafter called the "Act", the High Court of Mysore has framed the following rules to regulate the procedure in the case of applications made under Section 21 of the Act, the amount of costs thereof and the execution of orders passed thereon. The rules will come into effect from the date of publication in the Mysore Gazette.

(1) Every application to the High Court under section 21, of the Act shall be made by petition signed and verified by the applicant in the manner provided in the Code of Civil Procedure for signing and verifying plaints. The person making the application shall be called the 'petitioner' and the Government of Mysore the 'respondent'. The petition shall be presented in the manner required by Rules 1, 2 and 5 of the High Court Rules.

(2) The petition shall be drawn up on such paper and in such manner as prescribed by the rules in force for other petitions presented to the High Court and shall be headed by a cause title in the following form:-

"In the High Court of Mysore at Bangalore.
Civil Petition No.....of 19 - 19 .

In the matter of the (name, if any) Printing Press or of the (name or description) book, document or newspaper as the case my be."

(3) The petition shall contain the following particulars:—

(a) the date and nature of the order sought to be set aside;
(b) whether the application is to set aside an order of forfeiture under sections 4, 6, 8, 10 or 19 of the Act;
(c) the interest of the applicant in the property in respect of which the order sought to be vacated has been passed;
(d) the grounds on which the applicant seeks to have the order set aside.

(4) A certified of the order sought to be set aside and all documents or copies thereof certified to be correct on which the applicant relies shall be filed along with the petition. If any of the documents or copies thereof are not in the English language, the applicant will furnish true translations of such documents into English and shall certify to the correctness of the translation.

(5) On compliance with the requirements aforesaid the petition shall be registered as a civil petition and orders of the Chief Justice obtained for constituting a Bench consisting of not less than two Judges of the High Court to hear and dispose of the petition.

(6) At any time after the petition is registered and pending its disposal the High Court may, on an application filed in that behalf by the applicant and on such terms as it thinks fit, for sufficient cause, order stay of further proceedings under the order sought to be set aside.

(7) The petition shall in the first instance be posted for admission before the Bench constituted as aforesaid by the Chief Justice. The Bench, after fixing a day for hearing the petitioner or his Counsel and hearing him if he appears on that day, may dismiss the petition without sending notice to the respondent.

(8) If the petition is not dismissed under Rule 7, a day shall be fixed for hearing it and notice of the application and the date of hearing thereof shall be given to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore to whom shall be forwarded also a copy of the petition and copies of the documents relied on by the applicant or their translations as the case may be, which should be furnished by the applicant within a week from the date of the order admitting the petition or within such further time as may be granted by the Court. The Government shall, within two weeks from the date of service of notice or within such further time as may be granted by the Court in that behalf, file in Court such documents, if any, as may be relied upon by them and English translations of such of them as are not in English.

(9) The practice at present obtaining in the High Court with regard to issue of processes shall apply to every process issued in the proceedings under the Act.

(10) The costs of and incident to applications under Section 21 of the Act shall be in the discretion of the Bench hearing the application and the Bench shall have full power to determine by whom or out of what property and to what extent such costs are to be paid and to give all necessary directions for the purposes aforesaid. The Advocate's fee shall be calculated at the rates laid down for miscellaneous proceedings.

(11) Final orders made by the High Court on applications under Section 21 of the Act shall be executable in the same manner as if they were decrees passed by the High Court, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to execution of decrees shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to the execution of such orders.

(12) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure shall, so far as may be applicable and are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act or these rules, apply to proceedings on applications under Section 21 of the Act in respect of matters not expressly provided for in these rules.

4522 K. C. LINGIAH GOWDER, Registrar.

IN THE COURT OF THE DISTRICT MAGISTRATE BANGALORE DISTRICT (URBAN).

Order Under Section 144, Criminal Procedure Code.

WHEREAS owing to the disturbed conditions in the Civil Station owing to the Police Strike:

NOW THEREFORE, I, N. Puttarangaswamy, B.Sc., District Magistrate, Bangalore District (Urban), do hereby under section 144, Criminal Procedure Code, prohibit with immediate effect throughout the limits of the Civil Station for a period of one month;—

(a) all assemblies and meetings in public places or processions going in batches of more than five persons in public streets, thoroughfares, etc., except funeral processions, without the permission of the District Magistrate or the Commissioner of Police. This will not apply to cinemas, dramas, and other places of public resort which are licensed under the P. D. R. Act.

(b) all persons from making public utterances, singing songs, playing music, delivering harangues, using gestures which are likely to result in breaches of public peace;

(c) all persons from preparing or exhibiting any pictures, symbols, placards or any other objects which are likely to incite animosity or disturbances in public places.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Court this 11th day of September 1948.
